

The House that love built.®

Ronald McDonald House Charities Tampa Bay, with locations in St. Petersburg and Tampa, provides a short-term residence where pediatric families can draw hope, strength and companionship with others who share one common goal - to support their hospitalized child's recovery. It is a place where families discover they are not alone. Your tax-deductible contribution makes it possible for families to stay in a safe, supportive environment, close to their children who are receiving medical care in Tampa Bay hospitals.
